

22nd Annual Scientific Meeting

Globalization: Protecting Workers At Risk

April 6, 2001

Chairperson

Philip Landrigan, MD, MSc

Professor and UOSHERC Center Director

Chairman, Department of Community Medicine, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

Morning Session begins at 9:00 AM

Welcome: Philip Landrigan, MD, MSc

Developing Strategies to Protect Workers at Risk in Developing Countries

Barry Levy, MD, MPH

Approaches to Sharing Occupational Safety and Health on a Global Scale

Paul Schulte, PhD

Enforcement of Health and Safety Standards by US Companies Operating Abroad

Dara O'Rourke, PhD

Morning Panel Discussion

Afternoon Session begins at 1:15 PM

Protecting the Health and Safety of Pfizer Workers Throughout the World

Keith Tait, CIH, CSP

Efforts to Protect the Health and Safety of Navistar Employees Abroad

William Bunn, MD, MPH, JD

Fighting for Workers' Rights and Protections in the Global Economy

Charles Kernaghan

Health and Safety in the Maquiladora Industries in Northern Mexico

Lida Orta-Anes, PhD

Afternoon Panel Discussion

Wrap Up/Evaluation, Philip J. Landrigan, MD, MSc