

23rd Annual Scientific Meeting
April 5, 2002
Lessons Learned: Worker Health and Safety
Since September 11, 2001

9:00 – 9:05

Introduction

Dr. Philip Landrigan, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

9:05 – 9:30

Post 9/11, The Initial Environmental Health Response: Challenges and Lessons Learned

Dr. Thomas Matte, New York Academy of Medicine

9:30 – 10:15

Keynote

Dr. Kenneth Olden, Director, National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences

10:30 – 11:00

Dust and Air Pollution Resulting from the World Trade Center Disaster

Dr. George Thurston, New York University

11:00 – 11:30

Safety and Health of Workers at Ground Zero

Bruce Lippy, CIH, International Union of Operating Engineers

11:30 – 12:00

Post- 9/11 Experience of the Irving J. Selikoff - Mt. Sinai Occupational Medicine Clinic

Dr. Steven Levin, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

1:15 – 1:30

A Tribute to Firefighters and others lost September 11, 2001

A video by Earl Dotter

1:30 – 2:00

Firefighters' Health and Safety

Ronald Spadafora, Battalion Chief, FDNY

2:00 – 2:30

Health Problems of Day Laborers Working Near Ground Zero

Dr. Steven Markowitz, Queens College

2:30 – 3:00

Joint Labor Management Health and Safety Committee at Ground Zero

Nancy Clark, CIH, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

3:00 – 3:15

The NIOSH Health Hazard Evaluation for Person Working Near Ground Zero

Dr. David Kotelchuck, Hunter College

3:30 – 4:00

Panel on Lessons Learned

Dr. Philip Landrigan, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

4:00 – 4:15

Wrap up

Dr. Philip Landrigan, Mount Sinai School of Medicine